PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 2/4/2011 and 4/8/2011.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

5      Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Juan Rene Sanchez is considered in violation of his period of supervised release by committing the offenses of driving under the influence, hit and run unattended with property damage, and attempting to elude, on or prior to April 6, 2011.

According to an incident report provided by the Pasco Police Department, an officer attempted to stop the defendant after viewing what he thought might be a domestic issue in a vehicle. The defendant accelerated through the city limits at approximately 70 miles per hour. After a short chase the defendant left the vehicle in gear and jumped out. The vehicle continued to roll forward with a passenger inside. The vehicle rolled into a chain link fence causing damage to the fence and vehicle. Officers were able to apprehend the defendant after a foot pursuit. The defendant was taken to the Franklin County Jail and a BAC was conducted. Officers observed the defendant to be under the influence as he kept "nodding off" while in the BAC room, however, a zero reading alcohol level was noted. Additional charges of driving with a suspended license in the first degree are being reviewed at this time. The defendant was booked into the Franklin County Jail under case number 11-12907.
